Wayne Thiebaud | 1958-1968

At an extraordinary historical moment, Wayne Thiebaud proposed a radical new take on painting, and he did so with a slice of pie!

This exhibition at the new Manetti Shrem Museum at UC Davis, where Thiebaud is a professor emeritus, invites viewers to trace his emergence as a mature artist with a singular style. This is the first exhibition to explore this formative period. The exhibition brings together more than 60 early paintings gathered from private collections and museums throughout the United States.

Faith Ringgold | An American Artist

Best known for her story quilts, Faith Ringgold is also a painter, mixed-media sculptor, performance artist, activist, author, and teacher. This exhibition brings together more than 40 examples of Ringgold's varied production spanning four decades. It includes story quilts, tankas (inspired by Tibetan textile paintings called thangkas), prints, oil paintings, drawings, masks, soft sculptures, and original illustrations from the artist's award-winning book Tar Beach.
