Born in Chicago in 1936 and later relocating to the San Francisco Bay Area, Joan has gained international prominence in the fiber arts as a studio artist, teacher, lecturer, and juror. She is both visual artist and lyrical poet, but her experimental and groundbreaking work in the quilt medium, using collage as the basis of her practice, is what is most admired and written about. Over the decades, she has exhibited internationally, been published in prestigious catalogs and publications, and is included in the collections of the Museum of Arts and Design, New York; the Renwick Gallery of the Smithsonian American Art Museum, Washington, D.C.; the Oakland Museum of California; Kaiser Permanente; Adobe Systems, Inc.; the John M. Walsh III Collection of Contemporary Art Quilts; and many other important public and private collections in the U.S., Europe, and Japan. The Fresno Art Museum and the Council of 100 are proud to name Joan as the Distinguished Woman Artist for 2017 and pleased to organize this exhibition of her work from the past fifteen years.

Luncheon tickets are $40 each and cover the luncheon with the artist, a vegetarian lunch catered by FCEOC, a seat for the public lecture in the Bonner Auditorium, and a copy of the exhibition catalog. All luncheon reservations will be held at the door and are non-refundable.
