Although Claude Monet visited Venice only once, his paintings of the city are among his most dazzling. This exhibition, co-organized with the Brooklyn Museum, is the first dedicated to Monet's Venetian cityscapes since their debut over a century ago. Featuring more than 100 artworks, the exhibition places Monet's Venice paintings alongside select works from across his career, including his Water Lilies, as well as Venetian views by artists such as Manet, Renoir, and Canaletto. Unlike the bustling scenes painted by other artists, Monet's Venice is eerily deserted, its architecture, buildings, and canals dissolving in an encompassing, hazy light he described as the envelope. This exhibition offers a rare opportunity to experience Monet's vision of the famed Italian city.

Fior d'Italia at the San Remo Hotel

In keeping with the Northern Italian theme, we will be having an early dinner at 5 pm at Fior d'Italia, reputedly the oldest Italian restaurant in the United States being established in 1886. It is also one of the most popular Italian eateries with old-time San Franciscans. Travelers will have four entree options (including a vegetarian option) to choose from upon arrival at the restaurant along with a salad, tiramisu for dessert, and coffee or tea. (See registration form for list of choices.) Starters, wine, and/or other beverages are not included but may be individually purchased during our visit. Dinner, taxes and, tips included in the registration price.
