The brushes are optional as the Museum does have some brushes students can borrow—they may want to have their own. If students already own brushes they like, there is no need to buy the set - this was just a suggestion if brushes are needed

The prices listed above in black are from Allards. They are regular retail prices, not sale prices. These are before the 10% student discount which is taken on non-sale items and before taxes are added. Please ask for the discount by identifying yourself as a Fresno Art Museum student. The prices in blue are from DickBlick.com. Some are significantly cheaper (the paints) at Blick. They often have promo codes and free shipping. You can pick and choose where you want to purchase.
