Kay Sekimachi (b. 1926) is a fiber artist and weaver based in Berkeley, California. Her retrospective solo exhibition at FAM describes her years of art making, beginning in the 1940s up to the present day. The selected works define the breadth of Sekimachi's oeuvre and the command she has of her medium. She is known as a "weaver's weaver."

Her work can be found in the collections of the New York Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Smithsonian's Renwick Gallery, the Museum of Arts and Design, and the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, among others. She is recognized as a pioneer in the resurrection of fiber and weaving as a legitimate means of artistic expression.

KAY SEKIMACHI: Master Weaver: Innovations in Forms and Materials was curated by Michele Ellis Pracy, FAM Executive Director & Chief Curator and Kristina Hornback, former FAM Curator.
