CANCELLATION POLICY

If you are unable to attend, you may fill your seat with another traveler at no additional charge if FAM is notified of the name of the new traveler by 1:00 pm on Friday, May 1, 2020. If you are unable to find a replacement, the entire payment will be considered a tax deductible contribution to the Fresno Art Museum.

If the trip is postponed, delayed, extended, rescheduled, or cancelled as a result of: an Act of Nature, severe weather (including, but not limited to hurricanes, tornadoes, or other severe wind or precipitation), earthquake, fire, flood, medical emergency, labor unrest or strike, embargo or boycott, terrorism, war, insurrection, crime, automobile accident (unless caused solely by The Museum or its agents), mechanical failure, severe traffic, cyber attack or cyber crime, failure of the public electrical grid, failure of the public Internet, failure of the public payments system, closure of any museum or other destination for any reason, or any similar type of circumstance beyond the reasonable control of The Museum (a "Force Majeure Event"), then The Museum will make every effort to reschedule the trip on an alternate date that the plurality of passengers agree upon. If a passenger is unable to attend or chooses not to attend on the alternate date they may apply their payment to a future trip or to a Museum Membership (which may be a new membership, an upgrade, or a renewal). No refunds will be available for a Force Majeure Event. If the trip cannot be completed because of a Force Majeure Event, The Museum will make every effort to find an alternate route or alternate transportation, as applicable, back to Fresno and the Museum will not be responsible for covering accommodations or for any other costs or losses caused by a delay in returning home that result from a Force Majeure Event. Your signature on the reverse confirms your understanding of these policies.
