Should our Museum staff be aware of any medical issues? If yes, please describe below

I understand that no tuition refunds will be made if I cancel my registration within one week of the class. My payment would be considered a tax-deductible donation to the Museum. If the workshop is cancelled by the instructor or FAM for any reason, all fees paid in advance will be refunded. FAM/instructor also has the right to offer make-up classes if unforeseen circumstances requires the canceling of the class. If any cancellation by FAM or instructor is necessary, every attempt will be made to give prior notice.

WAIVERS AND RELEASES

I hereby waive all claims for injury, damage, or loss and property during participation in the classes at the Fresno Art Museum (FAM). I release FAM, its agents, employees, instructors, and volunteers from any claims or liability, damage, or loss which may be caused by or arise from any act or omission by FAM, its agents, employees, directors, instructors, and volunteers while participating in said workshop. At the current time, masks are required for everyone, even for vaccinated individuals.

Sometimes Museum staff, the instructor, or members of the media may take photographs or videos of events at the Museum, including classes. Although there is no guarantee that we will use them, please check here ☐ if we DO NOT have your permission to film or take photographs of your artwork or you. If the above box remains unchecked, Elio Camacho and the Fresno Art Museum are granted the limited right, royalty free, to use and publish the same for any lawful purpose, including publicity, advertising, and web content. Copyright in any of the art remains with the artist, and the artist will be given credit when possible.

I hereby authorize the staff of FAM and/or the instructor to act for me if a life-saving action must be taken immediately, according to their best judgment, in any emergency requiring medical attention for me.

* The workshop fee does not include art supplies. Please go to <http://fresnoartmuseum.org/elio> for link to list.
